

Training Future Four Months

8/26/2008	Is Your Long Term Care Facility Prepared for an Emergency? PREPARE equips senior living and long-term care professionals with the core competencies to address the medical and psychosocial consequences of natural disasters and other public health emergency preparedness and response concerns. Two staff members from each organization/community are trained as PREPARE Specialists through a two-day train-the-trainer workshop. They gain the necessary tools to teach the eight learning modules to their staff. There is no charge for this training. See the informational flyer for more information, including registration details. http://www.matherlifeways.com/documents/PREPAREregistrationformletterofagreement_web_revised.doc	MSU Management Education Center - Troy, MI
8/27/2008	CERC for Latino Public Health Communicators Crisis and Emergency Risk Communication (CERC) is an approach used by scientists and public health professionals to provide information that allows an individual, stakeholders or an entire community, to make the best possible decisions about their well-being, under nearly impossible time constraints, while accepting the imperfect nature of their choices. Scholarships are available (travel, lodging, and per diem) for 80 participants on a first-come, first-served basis. There is no registration fee for CERC. See the weblink for further information. http://www.edjassociates.com/cerchouston/main.asp	Houston Marriott Westchase - Houston, TX 77042 (713) 978-7400
8/28/2008	Immunization Update 2008 This webcast will provide up-to-date information on the rapidly changing field of immunization. Anticipated topics include influenza and zoster vaccines, recently approved vaccines, and updates on vaccine supplies and vaccine safety. http://www2.cdc.gov/phtn/immupdate2008/default.asp
9/9/2008	Introduction to Emergency Management This entry-level, two-day course provides an overview of Michigan emergency management and the homeland security system. It focuses on disaster management by highlighting the laws, policies, and practices of government and private sector, with a critical look at past disasters and lessons learned. It is strongly recommended for all entry-level or returning emergency managers. http://www.michigan.gov/msp/0,1607,7-123-1593_33474_33485_33487-173716--,00.html	Lansing, MI
9/23/2008	Food and Agriculture Safety Workshop The Michigan Food and Agriculture Defense Working Group is hoping to coordinate a workshop in Lansing on September 23. The seminar will touch on basic issues such as: facility security issues, asset characterization, vulnerability analysis, and cyber control systems analysis. This will be a full-day seminar in the Lansing area with a cost per company / per attendee. A minimum number of participants is required in order to offer this workshop, so please indicate your availability to Brad Deacon (deaconb9@michigan.gov) immediately!	Lansing, MI

10/16/2008 Mass Antibiotic Dispensing: Engaging At-risk Populations OPHP - Large
The capacity to reach every person in the community is the goal of emergency Training Room preparedness planning. This will be especially important during a public health (517) 335-8150
emergency that requires mass antibiotic dispensing to the entire population within the Cities Readiness Initiative goal of forty-eight hours. Experts in the process of defining, locating, and reaching at-risk populations as well as state and local public health professionals who have used this process will share their experiences.

11/20/2008 Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) Train-the-Trainer Auburn Hills, MI
This two-day course will provide participants with the skills to teach the CERT program, while emphasizing the basic course along with the development of a program in their community. Previous experience providing and facilitating instruction for adults is desirable. Note: This is a course for CERT trainers and program managers-not for individuals desiring to become CERT team members.
